

Onatic Custom Software License (OCSL) – Legal Extended Version v2.0

Jurisdiction: Primarily Belgium (owner's residence), disputes handled in the Netherlands in accordance with the owner's choice.

Copyright Holder: Nathan van Wijk (OnaticRBLX)

All rights reserved.

1. Ownership & Copyright

All source code, modules, systems, assets, designs, documentation, and derivative works ("the Software") are the exclusive intellectual property of the owner. Unauthorized access, use, or distribution constitutes a direct violation of Belgian and Dutch copyright laws.

2. Authorized Users

The Software may only be used by:

- OnaticRBLX (individual owner)
- Arthonier (group)

3. Prohibited Actions

Non-authorized parties are prohibited from accessing, copying, storing, modifying, distributing, reverse engineering, or using the Software without explicit written permission.

4. Enforcement, Evidence & Liability

The owner may take legal action including DMCA takedowns, civil claims, and compensation demands. Evidence may include logs, commit history, Roblox activity, IP info, timestamps, cloud logs, and communication fragments.

5. Legal Awareness Notice

By accessing or copying the Software, the user acknowledges awareness of this license, understands the use is unlawful, and accepts liability.

6. Revocation of Rights

Rights may be revoked at any time. Upon revocation, all copies must be deleted and usage must stop immediately.

7. No Warranty

The Software is provided “as is,” without warranty. The owner is not responsible for damages or losses.

8. Jurisdiction & Applicable Law

Disputes will be handled in the Netherlands. This license is governed by Belgian and Dutch copyright law and EU intellectual property directives.

9. Acceptance

Using, accessing, or copying the Software constitutes acceptance of this license.
